HUG-A-BUNNY DAY AT THE CHATTANOOGA ZOO

Chattanooga, Tennessee- The Chattanooga Zoo’s Hug-a-Bunny event has grown so much in the past couple of years, we are excited to announce we have extended the event across two days again this year! Come celebrate the arrival of spring and the Easter Holiday on Friday, March 30th and Saturday, March 31st at the Chattanooga Zoo’s annual Hug-a-Bunny event.

Hug-a-Bunny Days are a fun-filled days for all to come outside and enjoy the spring weather. From 9am to 5pm both days, the Zoo will be offering many springtime activities; some included in admission and some at an additional price. With regular zoo admission, guests will enjoy a golden egg hunt, special animal enrichment activities, photos with costumed characters, daily keeper chats, and will enjoy the Zoo on a spring day. In addition to these activities, the Zoo will also be offering its Zoo Rides - carousel, train, and camel - for an additional cost. The zoo’s Wildburger restaurant and snack carts will be open for food and drink purchases. Snack carts include ICEE, Dippin’ Dots, and more.

Coming back for the third year-the Bunny Zone! The Hug-a-Bunny Bunny Zone is an exclusive area with even more family fun. The Bunny Zone will include bounce houses, face painting, crafts, games, bunny, tortoise, and other animal encounters, and more! Bunny Zone unlimited activity wristbands are $5 each when pre-purchased online or at the Zoo. Day of Bunny Zone activity wristbands are $6 for zoo members and $7 for non-members.

Photos with the Easter Bunny will also be offered for $7 per print, and for an additional $3, guests will have a chance to add a real bunny to their photos too!

“How-Hug-a-Bunny day is always such a fun springtime event for Zoo staff and guests,” says Dardenelle Long, Chattanooga Zoo President and CEO. “Every year, this event continues to grow and we are so excited to continue to expand upon our traditional Hug-a-Bunny Day happenings, to offer even more activities across two days!”
